University of Memphis
LAW SCHOOL
GOODWYN INSTITUTE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

MEMPHIS
MAR 5
2 M
1919
TENN

Mrs. J. M. Freedman, Pharmacist
Bellevue Hospital, O. P. D.,
26th St. & 1st Ave.,
New York City
N. Y.

University of Memphis

LAW SCHOOL

GOODWYN INSTITUTE BUILDING

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

March 5th, 1919.

Darling Lost,-

Just received your darling Sunday's letter, and I can tell you, your pure are "stingy"! You know I'm only fooling, anyway, darling, hope I get a big letter to-morrow.

Love heart I got a case to draw up corporation papers, & must do it to-day, so haven't time to write. Used the school stationary as I am up seeing the dean on some matter. I need his help in.

Take good care of yourself, love, & pardon this note. Must make a 2 hours trip, and feel that when I get back, it will be too late to write.

How are you feeling, honey love? Don't forget to take good care of yourself. Tell mondear I was to busy to write her to-day. Will answer it probably to-night.

With all my love & kisses & hugs to you, darling wifey,

Ever lovingly

Joe.